Old Business

Mr. Dundas motioned to adopt the amendment to regulation #23 previously discussed. Mr. Masson seconded. All in favor, motion passed:

Amendment to Regulation #23:

Sale of lots for speculative purposes or as security for a debt is prohibited. Any lot that has had an interment shall not be sold. ~~The resale of lots must be handled through the Commission and must be at the prevailing price of lots.~~ At the request of the owner of one or more lots in a Town cemetery, the Commission will make available to the public the owner's lot(s), but the Commission will not buy back the lot(s). In the case of hardship, as determined at the sole discretion of the Commission, the Commission will place an article on the next Annual Town Meeting warrant requesting voter approval to buy back an owner's lot in a Town cemetery at the original cost. The purchase of cornerbounds is not refundable and must be removed prior to ownership transfer. The seller shall be reimbursed the original cost, with the balance deposited in the appropriate Town cemetery account.

Existing regulation
