

Truro Climate Action Committee

July 8, 2021 Minutes

Attendees: Carol Harris, Fred Gaechter, Bob Higgins-Steele, Eric Mays

Review and approve 6/24 minutes	approved
Community Input session	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Finalized hand out- Appendix B to be updatedDiscussed publicity - Carol to write press release in two weeksMaterials, easels, paper, markers secured	<ul style="list-style-type: none">AllCarolBob Carol, Rebecca to post posters
Farmers market table	Ready to go	More volunteers needed
Promote EV's and Charging stations	Committee agrees to approach the Energy Committee for joint venture	Rebecca ,Bob
Develop and promote a climate specialist position in Town Hall	<ul style="list-style-type: none">A spirited discussion. Money, buy-in etc pros and cons.The discussion includes the importance of buy-in across all Departments and Committees Bob to find buy in language from other plansTo be continued (Long term goal?)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">AllBobAll
Update EV's for police	Carol to follow up with Jarrod Wk July 12	Carol
Advise SB to work w/ CLC on energy assessments for the oldest structures in Town	Agreed: <ul style="list-style-type: none">Contact assessor re privacy concernsNotify SB and TM of actionBob and Eric investigate data mining assessor's database	Bob talk w/ Assessor Bob an Eric
Updates by committee members	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Carol meeting with Barbara Carbone to discuss The Truro Climate Action plan's (CAP) inclusion in Truro's Long term Plan. The Committee does not want the CAP to be merely mentioned or referenced in the Comprehensive Long-term Plan. Fred suggests we insert language or include the Climate Action Plan as an addendum or some mechanism to make the CAP a legally binding part of the long-term planFred updates Committee on ongoing work re High Head conservation areaBob to find whole government approach language	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Carol, ALLResearch on how to find the mechanism NOT ASSIGNEDForward to next meeting agenda
Set Agenda next meeting	No discussion
	Meeting adjourned

Bob Higgins-Steele

Carol Harris 7/28/2021

